GENERAL INFORMATION

Holding a liquor licence doesn't override local laws or planning rules. Licensees must follow all planning permit conditions, even if they are more restrictive than the conditions set out on your liquor licence.

Any reference to the Liquor Regulator below is a reference to the Victorian Liquor Commission, or any successor statutory office, body or officer however named, under the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998 or successor legislation, that has powers and carries out regulatory functions equivalent to the Victorian Liquor Commission.

TYPE OF LICENCE

This is a remote seller's licence that authorises the licensee to supply packaged liquor on the licensed premises for consumption off the licensed premises only when that liquor is ordered via an off-premises request.

The licensee must comply with any Ministerial Order determined by the Minister pursuant to Section 18D of the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998.
